

Your value at work

You play an important part in your team and organisation. Sometimes it's easy to get used to the every day routine and forget the value you have.

Answer the questions below to remind yourself of your value at work. Save it somewhere safe and remember to look back at it when you're faced with a challenge or you feel stuck in a routine.

What has been my biggest achievement at work so far?

Which of my everyday activities has the most impact on the organisation?

What effect does my personality have on my colleagues?

What part of my job do I enjoy the most?

What's the best feedback I've ever received at work?
